ANNUAL REPORT OF HEALTH DEPARTMENT

active support in the various health programs.

Public acceptance of the program of rabies vaccination was noted. A total of 1,640 doses of Modified Chick Embryo Vaccine were administered to dogs.

There were 454 inspections and visits made to the twenty-two food establishments under supervision, in order to maintain and improve the food service to the public.

During the year, 419 visits were made to homes, for purposes of obtaining water samples, installation of septic tanks, rabies control, etc.

All school lunchrooms were supervised for sanitation. Also, 203 inspection visits were made to the 29 service stations under supervision.

It was noted that in the Town of Appomattox there were 13 new sewer connections and several extensions of the present sewer system were made to increase service.

A rural survey, in cooperation with the V. P. I. Extension Division, was carried out and it was developed that 471 homes, or 50.3% had water under pressure; 185 or 19.7% had chain and bucket wells; 49, or 5.2% had hand pumps; 5, or 0.5% had protected springs, and 126, or 13.5% unprotected springs.

Book By Local Minister Is Published

New York, N. Y.- Dr. Carl A. Collins, Jr., Appomattox, Va., pastor of Liberty Baptist Church, has written a book entitled, "Paul As A Leader," subtitled, "A Study of the Apostle's Role and Influence in the Field of Religious Education." An Exposition - University Book, it is published August 15th, by Exposition Press, New York book publishers. (Price $4.00).

Here is a sound analysis of one of the most important men in Christian history. No other follower of Jesus has exercised such influence on religion today as Paul the Apostle.

Dr. Collins was ordained into the ministry in 1939, and has served rural, urban and city churches in Virginia and Texas. He has spent a total of sixteen and one-half years in active and reserve service with United States armed forces, and is at present a major in the active United States Air Force Reserve. While on active duty with the Air Force he was commended three times for outstanding service. Dr. Collins is at present the American Legion Department of Virginia chaplain and is Commander of Appomattox Post 104. "Paul As A Leader" is his first published book.

SOUTHERN STATES ANNUAL MEETING

Approximately 400 members of Southern States Cooperative, their families and friends in the Appomattox area heard reports of their Cooperative's services for the 1954-55 fiscal year which ended June 30, at their local annual membership meeting held recently here.

In addition to the report given by district manager R. R. Feagans, members were elected to the Advisory Board and the Farm Home Advisory Committee.

One of the highlights of the meeting was a Farm Talent Round - Up Contest, which was sponsored jointly by Coleman's Feed & Seed Store and Southern States Cooperative.

There were 7 acts entered in the contest Winners were The Dixie Dandies, composed of Bobby Barger, Frank Burke, H. T. Wood, Wesley Carr and Moses Dinkins.

Second prize went to a hill-billy duet, instrumental, with Clyde and Doris Burrell, both of Pamplin.

Third went to a dancer, Kitty Vaughan Wood, of Appomattox.

The winning local act will compete with other winning acts from other communities in one of the 18 district elimination contests.

Peyton Harvey was chosen to represent the local board as its delegate at the Southern States Annual Stockholders Meeting, to be held in Richmond in November. Abbott Coleman was chosen alternate.

W. T. Coleman, manager of Coleman's Feed & Seed Store, gave the report on local operations.

Elected to the Advisory Board were: LeGrande L. Webb, of Appomattox, and Peyton Harvey, Evergreen, and Richard Harris, of Spout Spring.

Elected to the local Farm Home Advisory Committee were Mrs. Elliott Torrence and Mrs. LeGrande Webb, both of Appomattox.
